Preface

Today is 18 Dhul-hijjah,<sup>1</sup> the day when the Prophet (ﷺ) stayed at Ghadīr Khum after his return from Hajjat-ul-wadā'<sup>2</sup> to Medina. Surrounded by the Companions (رضي الله عنهم), he declared while raising the hand of 'Alī al-Murtadā (رضي الله عنه):

مَنْ كُنْتُ مَوْلَاهُ فَعَلِيٌّ مَوْلَاهُ.

Whoever has me as his master 'Alī is his master.

This was the declaration of 'Alī's spiritual sovereignty and its unconditional acceptance is binding on believers till the Day of Judgement. It clearly proves that anyone who denies 'Alī's spiritual sovereignty in fact denies the Prophet's spiritual sovereignty. This most humble follower of the Prophet (ﷺ) felt that some people deny this reality partly out of ignorance and partly out of prejudice, which is spreading unnecessary tension and disunity in the Muslim community. Under the circumstances I thought it necessary to write two pamphlets on the issue of sovereignty and leadership: one titled as The Ghadīr Declaration and the other titled The Awaited Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام). The former is designed to

1. the twelfth month in the Islamic calendar, and the month of the pilgrimage to Makkah
  2. the last or farewell pilgrimage of the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) the year (10AH/632AD) before he left for his eternal home.

clarify the status of ‘Alī (عليه السلام) as the opener of the spiritual sovereignty and the latter is designed to describe the status of Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام), the seal of spiritual sovereignty. The main purpose is to remove the doubts that have gathered around the issue and to make the Muslims aware of the reality. The spiritual sovereignty of ‘Alī and Mahdī (عليهما السلام) are proved by the authentic hadīth-books of Ahl-us-Sunnah wal-Jamā‘ah, in the form of continuous traditions, (that is, there is uninterrupted evidence to endorse the soundness of the traditions). In the first pamphlet I have included 51 traditions which are full authenticated and referenced. The reason for this number is that this year I have completed 51 years of my life. Therefore, in order to gain blessings I have humbly used this relationship as wasīlah (intermediation) in the presence of ‘Alī (عليه السلام), so that this meagre effort is accepted. (Āmīn)

In this preface I want to clarify the three types of legacy (inheritance) handed down by the Holy Prophet (ﷺ):

- i. The spiritual inheritance of ‘unapparent succession’ (spiritual khilāfah).
- ii. The political inheritance of ‘external caliphate.’
- iii. The general inheritance of ‘religious caliphate.’
  - The first form of inheritance was given to the members of the Prophet’s family.
  - The second form of inheritance was given to the rightly-guided caliphs.
  - The third form of inheritance was given to other Companions and the Successors (رضي الله عنهم).

The ‘unapparent succession’ is that fountainhead of Prophet Muhammad’s succession which not only safeguarded spiritual achievements and hidden blessings of Islam, but also introduced the Ummah to spiritual sovereignty, saintly rank of qutb and reformation through which the Ummah benefited spiritually.

The ‘external caliphate’ is that fountainhead of Prophet Muhammad’s succession which led to the practical dominance of Islam as well as its establishment as a practical system. This led to governance and stability of the Prophet's dīn. It paved the way for the creation of different Islamic states and practically introduced the sharī'ah of Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) as a world system.

The 'general caliphate' is the fountainhead of Prophet Muhammad's succession which promoted the Islamic teachings and proved the importance of righteous deeds in the Muslim community. It not only helped in the preservation of knowledge and piety among the Ummah but also in the spread and propagation of Islamic morality. The three types of caliphate may be summed up as:

- i. Succession of spiritual sovereignty.
- ii. Caliphate of governance.
- iii. Caliphate of guidance.

Shāh Walī Allāh (رحمة الله تعالى عليه), a great scholar of the Indian Subcontinent, has commented on this division of Prophet's inheritance in the following words:

پس وارث آنحضرت هم بسہ قسم منقسم اند،
 قوراثہ الذین أخذوا الحکمة و العصمة و القطیبة
 الباطنیة، هم أهل بیتہ و خاصتہ، و وراثہ الذین
 أخذوا الحفظ و التلقین و القطیبة الظاہرة
 الإرشادیة، هم أصحابہ الکبار کالخلفاء الأربعة
 و سائر العشرة، و وراثہ الذین أخذوا العنایات
 الجزئیة و التقوی و العلم، هم أصحابہ الذین
 لحقوا بإحسان کانس و ابي هريرة و غیرہم من
 المتأخرین، فہذہ ثلاثة مراتب متفرعة من کمال
 خاتم الرسل صلی الله علیہ وآلہ وسلم.

People who have received the Prophet's inheritance are of three kinds: 'The first kind is of those who received wisdom, piety and inner enlightenment from him. These are the members of his family and other specific personalities. The second group is of those who received the inheritance of external enlightenment from him in the form of virtuousness, and guidance. These are his senior Companions, eg the four caliphs and the ten Companions who received the great news (of paradise from the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ)). The third group is of those who received individual blessings from him in the form of knowledge and piety. These are the people who were steeped in the virtue of ihsān (selflessness), like Anas and Abū Hurayrah (رضي الله تعالى عنهما), and the people who came later.' The three forms of inheritance owe their origin to the finality of messengership.<sup>1</sup>

It may be noted that this division is based on convenience and special status whereas each category of inheritance shares the qualities of other inheritances of the Prophet (ﷺ). Each category has, in some shape or form, a relationship with the other.

- ❖ In governance, Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله تعالى عنه) was the immediate deputy of the Prophet (ﷺ).
- ❖ In spirituality and sainthood 'Alī al-Murtadā (رضي الله تعالى عنه) was his directly appointed deputy.
- ❖ In guidance all of his Companions and Caliphs (رضي الله تعالى عنهم) were his immediate deputies.

As a result, after the finality of prophethood, three horizons were set up in order to facilitate the eternal continuity of the Prophet's (ﷺ) blessing:

- i. The first horizon is for the political inheritance of the Prophet (ﷺ).

---

1. Shāh Walī Allāh, at-Tafhīmāt-ul-ilāhiyyah (2:8).

- ii. The second horizon is for the spiritual inheritance of the Prophet (ﷺ).
- iii. The third horizon is for the educational and practical inheritance of the Prophet (ﷺ).
- The political inheritance of the Prophet (ﷺ) was known as khilāfah rāshidah (the rightly-guided caliphate).
- The spiritual inheritance of the Prophet (ﷺ) was known as wilāyah (spiritual sovereignty) and imāmah (spiritual leadership).
- The educational and practical inheritance of the Prophet (ﷺ) came to be known as guidance and honesty.

Therefore, the first recipient of political inheritance was Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه), the first recipient of spiritual inheritance was ‘Alī al-Murtadā (رضي الله عنه), and the first recipients of educational and practical inheritance were the Companions (رضي الله عنهم). So all of them were immediate caliphs (heads of their particular categories). There is no form of contradiction or rivalry between the three.

The second important point to be noted is that the true status of the three differs with regards to various issues, such as:

1. ‘External caliphate’ is the political office of Islam.

The ‘unapparent caliphate’ is exclusively a spiritual office.

2. The ‘external caliphate’ is an elective and consultative process.

The ‘unapparent caliphate’ is an inherent and selective act.

3. The ‘external’ caliph is elected by the people.

The ‘unapparent’ caliph is selected by God.

4. The political caliph is elected.

The spiritual caliph is selected.

5. This is the reason that the first caliph Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه) was elected on the basis of ‘Umar Fārūq’s (رضي الله عنه) proposal and the consensus of the majority of the public. But the election of the first Imām of spiritual sovereignty — ‘Alī al-Murtadā (عليه السلام) — required neither anybody’s proposal nor a consensus.

6. Democracy was to be derived from the caliphate, which is why the Prophet (ﷺ) did not announce who will be the caliph after him. Spiritual leadership was an act of assignment; therefore, the Prophet (ﷺ) declared it in the valley of Ghadīr Khum.
7. The Prophet (ﷺ) left the election of the caliph to the will of the people, but the spiritual leader (walī) was selected by himself by the will of Allāh.
8. External caliphate is established to perfect the worldly system.
Spiritual leadership is established to beautify it with the heavenly charm and grace.
9. Caliphate makes men just.
Spiritual leadership makes them perfect.
10. Caliphate is confined to the floor (earth).
Spiritual leadership extends to the Throne (of Allāh).
11. Caliphate is ineffective without officially taking office.
Spiritual leadership is effective even without taking office.
12. This is probably the reason why caliphate was entrusted to the Ummah, and Spiritual leadership was entrusted to the family of the Prophet (ﷺ).

Therefore, there is no escaping (room for the denial of) political leadership (khilāfah; caliphate) nor of spiritual sovereignty (wilāyah). The direct caliphate of Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه) was established with the consensus of the Companions (رضي الله عنهم) and is categorically proven by history. The direct spiritual sovereignty of ‘Alī al-Murtadā (عليه السلام) was announced by the Prophet (ﷺ) himself and is categorically proven by mutawātir (unbroken chain of) traditions. The proof of the caliphate is the consensus of the Companions (رضي الله عنهم) and the proof of spiritual sovereignty (wilāyah) is the declaration of the Prophet (ﷺ). One who denies the caliphate in fact denies history and consensus, and one who denies the spiritual sovereignty (wilāyah) denies the Prophet's declaration. Therefore, both the caliphate and the spiritual leadership are inescapable realities. What is urgently needed is a clear understanding of the reality of the two institutions in order to present conformity rather than difference (clash) between the two.

It should be understood that just as the external caliphate started with the rightly-guided caliphs and its blessings were passed on to the righteous and just rulers, similarly the unapparent caliphate (spiritual sovereignty) started with 'Alī al-Murtadā (رضي الله عنه) and its blessings were passed on to the members of the Prophet's family and perfected saints of the Ummah. By means of the declaration — مَنْ كُنْتُ مَوْلَاهُ فَعَلَيْهِ مَوْلَاهُ (whoever has me as his master 'Alī is his master) — and — عَلِيٌّ وَوَلِيكُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِي (‘Alī is your spiritual leader after me) — the Prophet (ﷺ) publicly declared 'Alī (رضي الله عنه) as the opener of spiritual sovereignty.

Shāh Walī Allāh (رحمة الله تعالى عليه) in the chapter of wilāyah says:

1. و فاتحِ أوَّلِ أَزِينِ أُمَّتِ مَرْحُومِهِ حَضْرَتِ عَلِيِّ
مَرْضِيِّ اسْتَكْرَمَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى وَجْهَهُ.

In this Ummah the first person to open the door of spiritual sovereignty (wilāyah) is 'Alī al-Murtadā (كرم الله تعالى وجهه).<sup>1</sup>

1. Shāh Walī Allāh, at-Tafhīmāt-ul-ilāhiyyah (1:103).

2. و سِر حضرت امیر کرم الله وجهه در اولاد کرام ایشان رضی الله عنهم سرایت کرد.

The secret of the spiritual sovereignty (wilāyah) of the Leader ('Alī (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) (to attain spiritual leadership) was passed down to his children.<sup>1</sup>

3. چنانکه کسی از اولیاء امت نیست الا بخاندان مرتضی رضی الله عنه مرتبط است بوجهی از وجوه.

Therefore, there is not a single saint in the Ummah who is not directly or indirectly linked to the family of 'Alī (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) (to attain spiritual leadership).<sup>2</sup>

4. و از اُمّت آنحضرت صلی الله علیه وآله وسلم اَوَّل کسیکه فاتح باب جذب شده است، و دران جا قدم نماده است حضرت امیر المؤمنین علی کرم الله وجهه، و لهذا سلاسل طرق بدان جانب راجع میشوند.

The first person in the Prophet's Ummah who opened the gate of self-denial in (the most superior and powerful category of) spiritual sovereignty and who took the first step on to this elevated spot is 'Alī (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) (to attain spiritual leadership). That is why different orders (salāsīl) of spirituality return to him.<sup>3</sup>

5. Shāh Walī Allāh (رحمة الله تعالى عليه) writes:

“Now who soever receives wilāyah (spiritual sovereignty) from the Holy Prophet Muhammad (صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ), it is either received through a relationship with 'Alī

1. Shāh Walī Allāh, at-Tafhīmāt-ul-ilāhiyyah (1:103).

2. Shāh Walī Allāh, at-Tafhīmāt-ul-ilāhiyyah (1:104).

3. Shāh Walī Allāh, Hama'āt (p.60).

al-Murtadā (ﷺ) or a relationship with the Chief Helper (Ghawth-ul-A‘zam) Jīlanī (رحمة الله تعالى عليه). No one can gain wilāyah (spiritual sovereignty) by bypassing this process.”<sup>1</sup>

It should be noted that the relationship with the Chief Helper (Ghawth-ul-A‘zam) is in fact a chapter and a ray of the relationship with ‘Alī al-Murtadā (ﷺ).

Shāh Ismā‘īl Dihlawī has clarified this point:

“‘Alī al-Murtadā (ﷺ) also has superiority in a single dimension over Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (ﷺ) and ‘Umar Fārūq (ﷺ). This superiority lies, firstly, in the greater number of his followers. Secondly, all categories of wilāyah (spiritual sovereignty) from his day till the end of time are only possible through him. He has a say in the kingdom of the kings and the leadership of the leaders and this is not hidden from those who are familiar with the world of angels... Most spiritual chains are directly derived from ‘Alī al-Murtadā (ﷺ). So, on the Day of Judgement, ‘Alī’s army including followers of high status and great reputation, will outnumber and outshine others to be a source of wonder for all the spectators.”<sup>2</sup>

‘Spiritual sovereignty’ (wilāyah), within the Prophet Muhammad’s (ﷺ) Ummah, whose fountainhead is ‘Alī al-Murtadā (ﷺ), is directly shared by Fātimah, Hassan and Hussein (ﷺ) and then through them it was passed down to the twelve Imāms (spiritual leaders), the last leader being Imām Mahdī (ﷺ). Just as ‘Alī al-Murtadā (ﷺ) is the

1. Shāh Walī Allāh, Hama‘āt (p.62).

2. Shāh Ismā‘īl Dihlawī, Sirāt mustaqīm (p.67).

opener of spiritual sovereignty, Imām Mahdī (علیه السلام) is the seal of spiritual sovereignty.

The words of Shaykh Mujaddid Alf Thānī Ahmad Sarhandī (رحمة الله تعالى عليه) appropriately highlight the point:

وراهی است که بقرب ولایت تعلق دارد:
 اقطاب و اوتاد و بدلاء و نجباء و عامه اولیاء الله، به
 همین راه واصل اند و راه سلوک عبارت ازین راه
 است بلکه جذبه متعارفه، نیز داخل همین است و توسط و حیلوت درین راه کائن است و پیشوای و
 اصلان این راه و سرگروه اینها و منبع فیض این
 بزرگواران: حضرت علی مرتضی است کرم الله
 تعالی وجهه الکریم، و این منصب عظیم الشان
 بایشان تعلق دارد درینمقام گویا هر دو قدم مبارک
 آنسرور علیه و علی آله الصلوٰة و السلام بر فرق
 مبارک اوست کرم الله تعالی وجهه و حضرت فاطمه و
 حضرات حسنین رضی الله تعالی عنهم درینمقام با
 ایشان شریک اند، ازگام که حضرت امیر قبل از
 نشأ عنصری نیز ملاذ و ملجاء این مقام بوده اند،
 چنانچه بعد از نشأ عنصری و هر کرا فیض و
 هدایت ازین راه میرسید بتوسط ایشان میرسید چه
 ایشان نزد نقطه منتهائی این راه اند و مرکز این مقام
 بایشان تعلق دارد، و چون دوره حضرت امیر تمام
 شد این منصب عظیم القدر بحضرات حسنین ترتیباً
 مفوض و مسلم گشت، و بعد از ایشان همان منصب
 بمریکی از ائمه اثنا عشر علی الترتیب و التفصیل

قرار گفت و در اعصار این بزرگواران و همچنین بعد از ارتحال ایشان هر کرا فیض و هدایت میرسید بتوسط این بزرگواران بوده و بخیلولة ایشانان هر چند اقطاب و نجای وقت بوده باشند، و ملاذ و ملجاء همه ایشان بوده اند چه اطراف را غیر از حقوق بمرکز چاره نیست.

And there is another way close to spiritual sovereignty and this is the way of all categories of saints of all levels. The path of mysticism (tasawwuf) springs from this path and it also involves the status of self-denial. Intermediation is proven in this process because 'Alī al-Murtadā (عليه السلام) is the fountainhead of from which the Shaykhs of those on this path gain all their blessings. And this grand office is reserved for him. On this path, the feet of the Holy Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) are on 'Alī's head whereas Fātimah, Hassan and Hussein (عليه السلام) share this status with him. I believe that he enjoyed this position even before his physical birth, as he did after it. Whosoever has received the divine blessings and guidance on this path, has received it through him, because he is closest to the last point on this path and the centre of this spot belongs to him. And when 'Alī's period ended, the grand office was passed down to Hassan and Hussein (رضي الله تعالى عنهما). Then it was passed down to the twelve Imāms in the correct order one by one, the last of whom will be Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام). Whosoever received guidance in their life and after their death, received it through these saints. These Imāms are the source of all blessing for even the high ranking saints (such as qutubs and nujabā' because they are the centre of all spiritual activity) and no one can survive without a link with the headquarters.<sup>1</sup>

Shaykh Ahmad Sarhandī (رحمة الله تعالى عليه) believes that Imām Mahdī (عليه) will share spiritual sovereignty (wilāyah) with 'Alī al-Murtadā (عليه).

The gist of the discussion is that the Prophet's declaration at Ghadīr Khum proved forever that 'Alī's spiritual sovereignty is in fact the Prophet Muhammad's spiritual sovereignty. As the door of prophethood was closed after the Holy Prophet (ﷺ), Allāh (ﷻ) has opened new avenues for the continuation of the Prophet's blessings till the Day of Judgement. Some were blessed by an external status whilst others by an internal status. The hidden avenue is known as spiritual sovereignty and 'Alī al-Murtadā (عليه) was its first Imām. Then this chain of sovereignty was passed down to the Prophet's family and finally to the twelve Imāms. Besides the twelve Imāms there are thousands of other pious individuals who reached the status of sainthood. They have held high ranks of sainthood (such as ghawth, qutub) and have enlightened the lives of millions of people through the internal light of wilāyah, taking them out of ignorance and astray. Yet all of them gained their spiritual status from the spiritual sovereignty of 'Alī al-Murtadā (عليه), be it directly or indirectly. No one was self-sufficient and independent from the wilāyah of 'Alī al-Murtadā (عليه) and this chain will continue up to the Day of Judgement until the appearance of the last Imām (spiritual leader) and the centre of spiritual leadership. He will be Imām Muhammad Mahdī (عليه), the twelfth Imām and the last caliph. In his person, the external and the unapparent caliphates which ran parallel to each other will come together. He will be the spiritual as well as the political inheritor, and he will be the last person to hold the offices of khilāfah and wilāyah. Anyone who denies Imām Mahdī (ﷺ) will deny both the external and unapparent forms of Islam.

1. Shaykh Ahmad Sarhandī, Maktūbāt (9:173#123).

This will be the climax of the exposure and disclosure of the Prophet Muhammad’s blessing. This is due to the fact that, he will be named Muhammad and he will also resemble the Holy Prophet (ﷺ) in moral excellence. So the world should know that this Imām is the recipient of both the external and internal inheritance of the Prophet’s blessings. That is why the Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Anyone who denies Mahdī will be a disbeliever.”

At that time, he will be the focus of all saints on earth, and, being the leader of Prophet Muhammad’s Ummah, prophet ‘Īsā (ﷺ) will offer his prayer behind him and in this way, he will announce his leadership to the whole world.

So we should realize that ‘Alī al-Murtadā (ﷺ) and Mahdī (ﷺ) of the earth and heavens — the father and the son — are both Allāh’s friends and the Prophet’s inheritors. It is therefore compulsory on every believer to acknowledge their exceptional status.

May Allāh (ﷻ) give us the ability to gain blessings from these fountainheads of wilāyah. (Āmīn! with the intermediation of the Leader of the Prophets (ﷺ)).

The Day of Judgment will not arrive before the caliphate of Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام)

7. عن عبد الله رضي الله عنه، قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: لا تذهب الدنيا حتى يملك العرب رجل من أهل بيتي، يواطئ اسمه اسمي.

“Related by ‘Abdullāh ibn Mas‘ūd (رضي الله عنهما) that the Messenger of Allāh’ (ﷺ) said: the world will not cease to exist until someone from my family becomes the king of Arabia whose name will be the same as my name (ie Muhammad).”<sup>1</sup>

8. عن عبد الله رضي الله عنه، عن النبي صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم، قال: يلي رجل من أهل بيتي يواطئ اسمه اسمي. قال عاصم: وأخبرنا أبو صالح، عن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه، قال: لو لم يبق من الدنيا إلا يوم، لطول الله ذلك اليوم حتى يلي.

“‘Abdullāh ibn Mas‘ūd (رضي الله عنهما) narrates that the Prophet (ﷺ) said: one of my children will be the caliph and his name will be the same as mine.

1. Tirmidhī narrated it in al-Jāmi‘-us-sahīh, chapters of fitan (turmoils) 4:85 (#2230); Abū Dāwūd, as-Sunan, b.of Mahdī, 4:87 (#4282); Ahmad bin Hambal, al-Musnad (1:376, 377, 430, 448); Ibn Hibbān, as-Sahīh (13:284 # 5954; 15:237 # 6824); Ibn Abī Shaybah, al-Musannaf (15:198); Bazzār, al-Musnad (5:204 #1803); Hākim, al-Mustadrak (4:488 # 8364); Tabarānī, al-Mu‘jam-ul-kabīr (10:131, 133-137 # 10208, 10213-10230), al-Mu‘jam-us-saghīr (2:290 # 1181); Abū Nu‘aym, Hilyat-ul-awliyā’ wa tabaqāt-ul-asfiyā’ (5:75); Khatīb Baghdādī, Tārīkh Baghdād (4:388); and Mizzī in Tuhfat-ul-ashraf bi-ma‘rifat-il-atraf (7:23 # 9208).

“Āsim said: Abū Sālih related to us: Narrated by Abū Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه): even if only one day remains before the end of the world, Allāh will lengthen the day to the extent that that person (ie Mahdī) becomes the caliph.”<sup>1</sup>

9. عن أم سلمة رضي الله عنها، قالت: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم يقول: المهدي من عترتي من ولد فاطمة.

“Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها) says: I heard the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) say: Mahdī will be from my family and he will be from the children of Fātimah.”<sup>2</sup>

10. عن أبي نصره، قال: كنا عند جابر بن عبد الله رضي الله عنهما، فقال: يوشك أهل الشام أن لا يجبي إليهم دينار ولا مدى. قلنا: من أين ذلك؟ قال: من قبل الروم. ثم أسكت هنية، ثم قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: يكون في آخر أمتي خليفة يحثي المال حثيا لا يعده عددا.

قال: قلت لأبي نصره وأبي العلاء: أتريان أنه عمر بن عبد العزيز؟ فقالا: لا.

“Abū Nadrah narrates that we were with Jābir ibn ‘Abdullāh (رضي الله عنهما) when he said: That time is near when neither dinars nor grain will be brought to the natives of Syria. We asked: who will impose this restriction? Jābir (رضي الله عنه) said: The Romans. Then he kept Haythamī transmitted it in Mawārid-uz-zam‘ān (6:132 # 1880) with a sound chain of transmission.

12. عن أبي سعيد رضي الله عنه، قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: المهدي منا أهل البيت، أشم الأنف أقتى أجلى، يملأ الأرض قسطاً وعدلاً كما ملئت جوراً وظلماً، يعيش هكذا. وبسط يساره، وإصبعين من يمينه المسبحة والإبهام وعقد ثلاثة.

“Abū Sa‘īd Khudrī (رضي الله عنه) narrates that the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: Mahdī will be from my family, his nose will be pointed and high and his forehead will be bright and shining. He will fill the earth with justice and equity, just as (before it) it had been filled with tyranny and transgression. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said, “he will live for,” then he stretched out his left (hand), two forefingers and thumb of his right hand and joined the three (meaning Mahdī will live for eight years).”<sup>1</sup>

13. عن علي رضي الله عنه، عن النبي صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم، قال: لو لم يبق من الدهر إلا يوم لبعث الله رجلاً من أهل بيتي، يملأها عدلاً كما ملئت جوراً.

“Alī (رضي الله عنه) has related it from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم): he (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: If only one day was to remain for this world to stay in tact (Allāh will lengthen the day and) a person, (called Mahdī) from my family, will be born who will fill the world with justice and equity just as (before him) it had been filled with tyranny and oppression.”<sup>2</sup>

“Abū Sa‘īd Khadrī (رضي الله عنه) says that the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) mentioned a great test that will face this Ummah. A time will come when oppression will be at such a peak that there will not be any refuge for any Muslim. Then Allāh will raise someone from amongst my children who will refill the earth with justice and fairness just as it was filled with tyranny and oppression before it. All those living in the heavens and earth will be pleased with him. The earth will produce as much as possible, and Allāh will pour down torrential rain from the sky. ### Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام) and the Saints

18. عن أم سلمة رضي الله عنها، قالت: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: يبايع لرجل من أمتي بين الركن والمقام كعدة أهل بدر، فيأتيه عصب العراق وأبدال الشام.

“Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها) narrates that Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said: People exactly equal in number to the Companions of Badr (ie 313) will take the oath of allegiance on the hand of a person from my Ummah (Mahdī) between the Black Stone and the Station of Ibrāhīm (maqām Ibrāhīm). Later on, the saints of Iraq and the abdāl (Substitutes) of Syria will also come to him (to give the oath of allegiance).”<sup>1</sup>

19. عن أم سلمة رضي الله عنها زوج النبي صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم، عن النبي صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم، قال: يكون اختلاف عند موت خليفة، فيخرج رجل من أهل المدينة هاربا إلى مكة، فيأتيه ناس من أهل مكة، فيخرجونه وهو كاره، فيبايعونه بين الركن والمقام، ويبعث إليه بعث من الشام، فيخسف بهم بالبيداء بين مكة والمدينة، فإذا رأى الناس ذلك أتاه أبدال الشام وعصائب أهل العراق، فيبايعونه، ثم ينشأ رجل من قريش أخواله كلب فيبعث إليهم بعثا، فيظهرون عليهم، وذلك بعث كلب، والخيبة لمن لم يشهد غنيمة كلب، فيقسم المال

ويعمل في الناس بسنة نبيهم صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, ويلقي الإسلام بجرانه إلى الأرض, فيلبث سبع سنين, ثم يتوفى ويصلي عليه المسلمون.

“Narrated by Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها), the wife of the Prophet (ﷺ), who says that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said: at the death of a Caliph there will be a difference of opinion (between the Muslims of Medina over the election of the new Caliph). One person (that is, Mahdī, realising that the people might elect him as the caliph) will leave Medina for Makkah. Some of the residents of Makkah (who will recognize him as Mahdī) will come to him, and bring him out (of his home) against his will; they will take the oath (of caliphate) on his hand between the Black Stone and the Station of Ibrāhīm (maqām Ibrāhīm). (When the news of his caliphate will spread), an army will set out from Syria to wage war on him (but before reaching him) it will be pushed down into the (treeless) ground at Baydā’ between Makkah and Medina. The abdāl (Substitutes) of Syria and the Saints of Iraq will take the oath of caliphate on his hand. Later, a Qurayshī (that is, Sufyānī) person, whose maternal relatives will be from the Kalb tribe, will send an armed force against them. They will prevail over the invading army and this will be the Battle of Kalb. One who (does not take part in the Battle of Kalb) has nothing to do with the booty will be in loss. (After this conquest) the Caliph Māhdī will generously donate wealth among the people and make them follow the sunnah of their Prophet (ﷺ). Islam will be fully established on earth (ie Islam will be dominant and accepted all over the world). Mahdī will remain (as Caliph) for seven years, then he will die, and the Muslims will attend his funeral.

“Abū Dāwūd said: some transmitted from Hishām “nine years” and some “seven years.”<sup>1</sup> will take the oath (of caliphate) on his hand between the Black Stone and the Station of Ibrāhīm (maqām Ibrāhīm). (On hearing the news of their allegiance) an army will set out towards them from Syria but it will be crushed into the ground as it reaches Baydā' (a plain between Makkah and Medina). After this, the saints of Iraq and the abdāl (Substitutes) of Syria will call on him. Then a (Sufyānī) person will come from Syria, his maternal relatives belonging to the Kalb tribe, he will despatch his army to wage war on him. Allāh will defeat them, resulting in them facing a catastrophe. This is the Battle of Kalb. So anyone who (does not take part in the Battle of Kalb and as a result) does not share in the booty, will be in loss. Then the caliph Mahdī will discover treasures and distribute them generously (among the people). Islam will be fully established on earth. People will live (in this state of prosperity and comfort) for seven or nine years (that is, people will live in peace and comfort until the death of Māhdī).”<sup>1</sup>

Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام) as Allāh's Caliph

22. عن ثوبان رضي الله عنه، قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: يقتتل عند كنزكم ثلاثة كلهم ابن خليفة، ثم لا يصير إلى واحد منهم، ثم تطلع الرايات السود من قبل المشرق، فيقتلونكم قتلا لم يقتله قوم.

ثم ذكر شيئا لا أحفظه، فقال: فإذا رأيتموه فبايعوه ولو حبوا على الثلج، فإنه خليفة الله المهدي.

“Thawbān (رضي الله عنه) narrates that the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: Three persons will wage war near your treasure. All three will be sons of the caliph and yet this treasure will not be transferred to anyone of them. Then black flags will appear from the east and they will wage war on you with such intensity that no nation had waged war with such aggression before.

“(Thawbān (رضي الله عنه) says:) then the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said something (which I could not remember.) Then the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: when you people see him, you should take the oath of allegiance on his hand even if you have to come dragging on snow. Ahmad bin Hambal related it in al-Musnad (5:277); Ru'yānī, al-Musnad (1:417#637); Dānī, as-Sunan-ul-wāridah fil-fitan (5:1032 # 548); Daylamī, al-Firdaws, (2:323#3740); Kinānī, Misbāh-uz-zujājah (4:204, 205 # 2440); Hindī, Kanz-ul-'ummāl (14:263 # 38658); Suyūī, ad-Durr-ul-manthūr fit-tafsīr bil-

Necessary Clarification: Ibn Hajar ‘Asqalānī comments in Fath-ul-bārī (13:78, 79) while quoting this tradition: If the treasure mentioned in this tradition is the one referred to by Abū Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) in this tradition:

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: يوشك
الفرات أن يحسر عن كنز من ذهب.

“The Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said: The time is near when the river Euphrates (having dried up) will reveal a treasure of gold.”<sup>1</sup>

Then this tradition clearly indicates that these events will occur at the time of Mahdī’s appearance.

23. عن حذيفة رضي الله عنه، قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: المهدي رجل من ولدي، لونه لون عربي، وجسمه جسم إسرائيلي، على خده الأيمن خال كأنه كوكب دري، يملأ الأرض عدلاً كما ملئت جوراً، يرضى في خلافته أهل الأرض وأهل السماء والطير في الجوّ.

Section 6

Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام) and Islamic Dominance

25. عن أبي الطفيل، عن محمد بن الحنفية، قال: كنا عند علي رضي الله عنه، فسأله رجل عن المهدي، فقال علي رضي الله عنه: هيهات، ثم عقد بيده سبعا، فقال: ذاك يخرج في آخر الزمان، إذا قال الرجل: الله! الله! قتل، فيجمع الله تعالى له قوما قزع كقزع السحاب، يؤلف الله بين قلوبهم، لا يستوحشون إلى أحد ولا يفرحون بأحد، يدخل فيهم على عدة أصحاب بدر لم يسبقهم الأولون ولا يدركهم الآخرون، وعلى عدد أصحاب طالوت الذين جاوزوا معه النهر.

قال أبو الطفيل: قال ابن الحنفية: أتريده؟ قلت: نعم. قال: إنه يخرج من بين هذين الخشبين. قلت: لا جرم، والله! لا أريهما حتى أموت. فمات بها يعني مكة حرسها الله تعالى.

“Abū Tufayl relates from Muhammad ibn Hanafiyyah that he said: We were sitting in the company of ‘Alī (عليه السلام) that a person asked him about Mahdī. ‘Alī (عليه السلام) (pleasantly) said: go away. Then, counting seven on his hand, he said: Mahdī will appear in the last days and (the dominance of non-religious forces will be at such a level that) anyone mentioning the name of Allāh will be killed. (At the time of Mahdī’s appearance) Allāh will gather a party around him, just as the separate pieces of cloud are joined together and Allāh will create love (and unity) among them. They will neither fear anyone nor will they unnecessarily favour anyone (meaning that they deal with everybody equally). The people who will gather round the caliph will number the Companions who had taken part in the battle of Badr (that is, 313). This party will have a special superiority which was not possessed by anyone before them nor will anyone possess it after them. The number of the people in this party will be the same as the Companions of Tālūt who had crossed the (Jordan) canal in the company of Tālūt.

“Abū Tufayl says that Muhammad ibn Hanafiyyah asked the audience: Do you intend to join this party? I said: yes. He said, pointing toward the two pillars (of Ka‘bah): The appearance of caliph Mahdī will take place between them. At this, Abū Tufayl said: By God! I shall not leave them during my whole life. (The narrator says): accordingly, the death of Abū Tufayl took place in Makkah.”<sup>1</sup>

26. عن علي الهلالي رضي الله عنه، أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم قال لفاطمة: والذي بعثني بالحق! إن منهما - يعني من الحسن والحسين - مهدي هذه الأمة، إذا صارت الدنيا هرجا ومرجا وتظاهرت الفتن وتقطعت السبل وأغار بعضهم على بعض، فلا كبير يرحم صغيرا ولا صغير يؤقر كبيرا، بعث الله عز وجل عند ذلك منهما من يفتح حصون الضلالة وقلوبا غلغا يقوم بالدين في آخر الزمان كما قمت في أول الزمان، ويملا الأرض عدلا كما ملئت جورا.

“Alī al-Hilālī (رضي الله عنه) narrates that the Prophet (ﷺ) said to Fātimah (رضي الله عنها): I swear by the One who has sent me with the Truth! Surely, the Mahdī of this Ummah will be from among (the children of) these two, that is, Hassan and Hussein. At a time when the world will be subject to chaos and turmoil, roads will be cut off and people will attack one another, no elderly will show love to the younger and no youngster will respect the elderly, then Allāh will send a person from among these two who will conquer the forts of disbelief and open closed hearts. He will establish Islam in the last days of the Ummah as I have established it in the early days (of this Ummah). He will fill the earth with justice just as it was formerly filled with tyranny and persecution.”<sup>1</sup>

27. عن أبي سعيد الخدري رضي الله عنه، سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم يقول: يخرج رجل من أهل بيتي يقول بسنتي، ينزل الله عز وجل له القطر من السماء، وتخرج له الأرض من بركتها، تملأ الأرض منه قسطاً وعدلاً كما ملئت جوراً وظلماً، يعمل على هذه الأمة سبع سنين، وينزل بيت المقدس.

“Abū Sa‘īd Khudrī (رضي الله عنه) has narrated: I heard the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) say: A person will appear from my family who will preach my sunnah. Allāh will pour down rain for him from the skies and the earth will disclose (and throw out) its treasures for him. The earth will be filled with justice and fairness because of him just as it was filled before hand with tyranny and persecution. He will rule this Ummah for seven years and he will descend at the Holy House (Bayt-ul-Muqaddas).”<sup>2</sup>

Section 7*Economic Prosperity and Fair Distribution of Wealth

30. عن أبي سعيد الخدري رضي الله عنه: أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم قال: يخرج في آخر أمتي المهدي يسقيه الله الغيث وتخرج الأرض نباتها ويعطي المال صحاحا وتكثر الماشية وتعظم الأمة يعيش سبعا أو ثمانيا.

“Abū Sa‘īd Khudrī (رضي الله عنه) has narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: Mahdī will be born during the last days of my Ummah. Allāh will pour down heavy rain during his caliphate and the earth will grow its produce in abundance, and he will distribute things equally among the people. During his reign there will be plenty of cattle and the Ummah will be held in great esteem. (After becoming the caliph) he will live for seven or eight years.”<sup>1</sup>

31. عن أبي سعيد الخدري رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: أبشركم بالمهدي يبعث في أمتي على اختلاف من الناس وزلازل، فيملاً الأرض قسطاً وعدلاً كما ملئت جوراً وظلماً، يرضى عنه ساكن السماء وساكن الأرض، يقسم المال صحاحاً.

“Abū Sa’īd Khudrī (رضي الله عنه) has narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said: I am giving you the good news of the coming of Mahdī who will be sent down at a time when my Ummah will fall prey to disputes and chaos. He will fill the earth with justice and fairness just as it was filled (before him) with oppression and persecution. Those in the earth and heavens will be pleased with him. He will distribute things equally among the people (ie he will not discriminate against anyone). Allāh (during his caliphate) will fill the hearts of my Ummah with generosity. He will provide justice to all (without any discrimination or preference). He will ask his announcer to announce that if anyone required anything (they should come to Mahdī. On hearing this announcement) no one from among the Muslims except one person will stand up. Mahdī will ask him to go to the treasurer and tell him that Mahdī has ordered you to give me some goods. (The man will go to the treasurer), the treasurer will say to him: take as much as you want. He will take (as much as he wishes) and will come out of the treasury. He will, at that moment, be ashamed (of his act) and (will say to himself), am I the greediest person in Muhammad’s Ummah, or he will say to himself that which is enough for others is not enough for me. (Feeling guilty of his act) he will want to return the goods but it will not be taken back. He will be told that, once we have given something we do not take it back. ### Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام) will be welcomed with Open Arms

37. عن مجاهد، قال: حدثني فلان رجل من أصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: أن المهدي لا يخرج حتى تقتل النفس الزكية، فإذا قتلت النفس الزكية غضب عليهم من في السماء ومن في الأرض، فأتى الناس المهدي، فزفوه كما تزف العروس إلى زوجها ليلة عرسها، وهو يملأ الأرض قسطاً وعدلاً وتخرج الأرض نباتها وتمطر السماء مطرها، وتنعم أمتي في ولايته نعمة لم تنعمها قط.

“(The famous tabi‘ī (Successor)) Mujāhid has narrated that a Companion said: (The caliph) Mahdī will appear after the murder of ‘Nafs Zakiyyah’. When ‘Nafs Zakiyyah’ is murdered, those in the heavens and the earth will be angry with the murderers. Later, the people will come to Mahdī and bring him (with great pomp and show) as the bride is carried to her groom on wedding night. He will fill the earth with equity and justice. (During his caliphate) the earth will grow its crops as the skies pour down plenty of rain. During his rule my Ummah will be blessed with so many favours that it has never been blessed before.”<sup>1</sup>

Necessary Clarification: A man known as Nafs Zakiyyah was Muhammad ibn ‘Abdullāh ibn Hussein ibn ‘Alī ibn Abī Tālib who revolted against Abbasid caliph Mansūr in 145 AH and was martyred. The tradition does not refer to him. Here Nafs Zakiyyah stands for some other saint who will come before Imām Mahdī.

Prophet ‘Īsā (عليه السلام) and Imām Mahdī (عليه السلام)

40. عن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه، قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: كيف أنتم إذا نزل ابن مريم فيكم، وإمامكم منكم.

Explanation: It means that ‘Īsā (عليه السلام), at the time of descent, will offer his prayers in congregation but he himself will not be the Imām but a member of the Ummah, that is, caliph Mahdī. Accordingly, Ibn Hajar ‘Asqalānī with reference to Abū al-Hassan Āburrī’s Manāqib ash-Shāfi’ī writes: there are continuous traditions in its support and ‘Īsā (عليه السلام) will offer one prayer behind caliph Mahdī.<sup>2</sup> ظاهرين إلى يوم القيامة, قال: فينزل عيسى بن مريم, فيقول أميرهم: تعال! صل لنا. فيقول: لا, إن بعضكم على بعض أمراء, تكرمة الله هذه الأمة.

“Narrated by Ibn Jurayh: Abū Zubayr reported to me: He heard Jābir ibn ‘Abdullāh (رضي الله عنهما) saying: I heard the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) saying: A section of my people will not cease fighting for the Truth successfully till the Day of Resurrection. He said: ‘Isā ibn Maryam would then descend and the leader of the Muslims will say: come and lead us in prayer, but he will say: “No, some amongst you are leaders over others. This is the honour from Allāh for this nation” (ie prophet ‘Isā (عليه السلام) will decline the offer of leading the prayer due to the high status given by Allāh to this Ummah).”<sup>1</sup>

“Jābir ibn ‘Abdullāh (رضي الله عنهما) narrates that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said: when Islam (ie the state of the Ummah) becomes weak, Dajjāl will appear — and after giving details about Dajjāl — he said: After some time, ‘Īsā ibn Maryam will descend (from the heaven) and in the morning (that is, at pre-dawn) he will call out: O people! What is stopping you from fighting with this evil pretender (Dajjāl)? People will say: he appears to be a supernatural creation (jinn), but as they will move forward they will see ‘Īsā (عليه السلام). Then it will be time for prayer, so their leader will say: O Allāh’s Spirit: come forward (and lead the prayer). He will say: “Your Imām should lead you” (and at that time the Imām will be Mahdī). When the people will finish their Dawn prayer, they will leave (under the leadership of ‘Īsā (عليه السلام)) to fight Dajjāl. “Abdullāh ibn ‘Amr (رضي الله عنه) narrates: people will perform the pilgrimage together and will gather at ‘Arafāt without the Imām. So at Minā during their descent a revolt will pounce upon them like a dog (due to which) the tribes will pounce on one another. They will kill one another until the valley begins to flow within blood. (In this worried state) they will go to the best person amongst them to seek his refuge while he will be crying with his face touching the ka‘bah as (the narrator says) I am looking at his tears. So they will request him: please come! We want to take an oath of loyalty on your hand. He will say: it is very sad that you have broken so many promises and have shed so much blood. ### Imam Mahdī (عليه السلام) as the Last Caliph

58. عن جابر بن سمرة رضي الله عنه، قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم يقول: لا يزال هذا الدين قائما حتى يكون عليكم اثنا عشر خليفة، كلهم تجتمع عليه الأمة. فسمعت كلاما من النبي صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم لم أفهمه، فقلت لأبي: ما يقول؟ قال: كلهم من قريش.

“It is narrated by Jābir ibn Samurah (رضي الله عنه): I heard the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) say: Islam will remain established until twelve caliphs have ruled over you. The Ummah will be united on all of them.

“Then I heard the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) say (something) which I could not understand. I asked my father: what is he saying? He told me that he had said: all (the twelve caliphs) will be from the Quraysh.”<sup>1</sup>

59. عن جابر بن سمرة رضي الله عنه، قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم يقول: لا يزال هذا الدين عزيزا إلى اثني عشر خليفة. قال: فكبر الناس وضجوا، ثم قال كلمة خفية، قلت لأبي: يا أبة! ما قال؟ قال: كلهم من قريش.

“Jābir ibn Samurah (رضي الله عنه) has narrated that he heard the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) say: Islam will remain dominant until twelve caliphs have passed.” Jābir (رضي الله عنه) said: (at this) people said (loudly): “Allāh is the greatest” and it became

1. Abū Dāwūd narrated it in as-Sunan, b. of Mahdī, 4:86 (#4279); ‘Asqalānī, Fath-ul-bārī (13:212); and Bayhaqī in Dalā’il-un-nubuwwah (6:520).

noisy all around. Then the Prophet (ﷺ) said something quietly. I asked my father: O father! What did he say? (My father told me:) he said, “All those (twelve caliphs) will be from the Quraysh.”<sup>1</sup>

Imam Suyūṭī comments on Abū Dāwūd’s narration in al-Hāwī lil-fatāwā (2:85):

عقد أبو داؤد في سننه بابا في المهدي، وأورد في صدره حديث جابر بن سمرة رضي الله عنه، عن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: لا يزال هذا الدين قائما حتى يكون اثنا عشر خليفة، كلهم تجتمع عليه الأمة. وفي رواية: لا يزال هذا الدين عزيزا إلى اثني عشر خليفة، كلهم من قريش.

فأشار بذلك إلى ما قاله العلماء: ان المهدي أحد الاثني عشر.

“Abū Dāwūd has devoted a chapter to Imām Mahdī in his book as-Sunan (4:86). In the beginning of the chapter a narration of Jābir ibn Samurah (رضي الله عنه) is given. The Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said: “until twelve caliphs have passed, on whom this Ummah will unite.” According to another tradition, “this dīn will remain dominant till the twelve caliphs have passed and all of them will be from the Quraysh.”

www.MinhajBooks.com

1. Abū Dāwūd narrated it in as-Sunan, b. of Mahdī, 4:86 (#4280, 4281); Ahmad bin Hambal, al-Musnad (5:93, 97, 98, 101); and ‘Asqalānī in Fath-ul-bārī (13:211).

Muslim related it with some different words in as-Sahīh, b. of imārah (emritage) 3:1453 (#7/1821).

“In this chapter Abū Dāwūd has referred to the opinion of scholars who believe that Imām Mahdī is one of those twelve caliphs.”

The conclusion Suyūṭī has drawn from this is that Imām Mahdī will be the twelfth and last Imām on this earth.<sup>1</sup>

Abū Dāwūd, after introducing the chapter with these two traditions, has included the following narration:

عن أم سلمة رضي الله عنها، قالت: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم يقول: المهدي من عترتي من ولد فاطمة.

“Narrated by Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها) that she heard the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) saying: Mahdī will be from my family and from the children of Fātimah.”<sup>2</sup>

Before it he has described the tradition which says that even if only one day remains in the arrival of the Day of Judgment, Allāh will send a person (named Mahdī) from the Prophet’s family who will fill the earth with justice and fairness just as it was formerly filled with tyranny and affection.

59. عن أبي سعيد رضي الله عنه، قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: يكون عند إنقطاع من الزمان وظهور من الفتن رجل يقال له المهدي، يكون عطاؤه هنيئاً.

“Abū Sa‘īd (رضي الله عنه) has narrated that the Prophet (ﷺ) said: In the last days when so many disruptions will appear, at that time there will be a person called Mahdī. His contributions will be (very) pleasant.”<sup>3</sup>

وقالت أسماء بنت عميس: إن أمانة ذلك اليوم أن كفا من

السماء مدلاة ينظر إليها الناس.

“Zuhrī has narrated: when Sufyān’s (army) and Mahdī’s army will face each other for battle, on that day a voice will be heard from the sky: ‘beware! Surely, the friends of (Imām) Mahdī are the friends of Allāh.’

“And Asmā’ bint ‘Umayy said: the sign of that day will be that a hand will be seen hanging from the sky which (all) the people will see.”<sup>1</sup>

61. عن علي رضي الله عنه, قال: قلت: يا رسول الله! أمانة آل محمد المهدي أم من غيرنا؟ فقال: لا, بل منا, يختم الله به الدين كما فتح بنا, وبنا ينقذون من الفتنة كما أنقذوا من الشرك, وبنا يؤلف الله بين قلوبهم بعد عداوة الفتنة كما ألف بين قلوبهم بعد عداوة الشرك, وبنا يصبحون بعد عداوة الفتنة إخوانا كما أصبحوا بعد عداوة الشرك إخوانا في دينهم.

Narrated by ‘Alī (عليه السلام), he said: I said (to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم)): O Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم)! Will Mahdī be from us, the family of Muhammad or from others? He said: no, but he will be from among us, Allāh will re-establish Islam through him as he did so (in the beginning) through us, and these people will be rescued from mischief through us (Mahdī) as they have been saved from polytheism. And through our means (Mahdī) Allāh will create love in their hearts after the hatred of mischief as He created love in their hearts after the hatred of polytheism. And through our means people will become brotherly amongst each other after the rivalry of turmoils as they have done so in Islam after the rivalry of polytheism."<sup>1</sup>

62. عن أرتاة, قال: يخرج رجل من أهل بيت النبي صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم مهدي حسن السيرة, يغزو مدينة قيصر, وهو آخر أمير من أمة محمد صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, ثم يخرج في زمانه الدجال وينزل في زمانه عيسى ابن مريم.

“Artāh has narrated that a person (Mahdī) will appear from the Prophet’s family who will fight in the city of Rome and he will be the last leader (Imām) of Muhammad’s Ummah. Dajjāl will appear in his time and in his time also ‘Īsā (عليه السلام) will descend (from the heaven).”<sup>2</sup>

“Imam Suyūṭī in al-Hāwī lil-fatāwā (2:80) after listing the signs of the arrival of Imām Mahdī, comments:

هذه الآثار كلها لخصتها من "كتاب الفتن" لنعيم بن حماد, وهو أحد الأئمة الحفاظ, وأحد شيوخ البخاري.

“Narrated by Jābir ibn ‘Abdullāh (رضي الله عنهما) that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said: There will be a caliph in my Ummah who will generously distribute wealth without keeping a record of it. And I swear by the One who controls my life! Certainly that the dominance (of Islam) will return (that is, Islam will recapture its lost glory and retrieve its status during his reign).”<sup>2</sup>

1. Related by Suyūṭī in al-Hāwī lil-fatāwā (2:60, 61).

2. Hākim graded it sahīh (sound) according to the conditions of Muslim in al-Mustadrak (4:454 # 8400), while Dhahabī kept quiet about it.

Haythamī said in Majma‘-uz-zawā‘id (7:316) that Bazzār had related it, and its men are those of (sahīh) sound hadīth.

Ibn Hammād narrated it in al-Fitan (1:362 # 1055); Suyūṭī, ad-Durr-ul-manthūr fit-tafsīr bil-ma‘thūr (6:56); and Bayhaqī in Dalā‘il-un-nubuwwah (6:330,331).

Muslim related it with different words in as-Sahīh, b. of fitan wa ashrāt-us-sā‘ah (turmoils and conditions of the Last Hour) 4:2234 (#67/2913); Ahmad bin Hambal, al-Musnad (3:317); Hindī, Kanz-ul-‘ummāl (14:263 # 38659); and Ibn Kathīr in al-Bidāyah wan-nihāyah (4:599; 10:44).

65. عن ابن مسعود رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: لو لم يبق من الدنيا إلا ليلة لطول الله تلك الليلة حتى يملك رجل من أهل بيتي، يواطى اسمه اسمي، واسم أبيه اسم أبي، يملأها قسطا وعدلا كما ملئت ظلما وجورا، و يقسم المال بالسوية، ويجعل الله الغني في قلوب هذه الأمة، فيمكت سبعا أو تسعا، ثم لا خير في عيش الحياة بعد المهدي.

“Narrated by ‘Abdullāh ibn Mas‘ūd (رضي الله عنهما) that Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said: if there was only one night left for this world to stay in tact, Allāh will lengthen it until a member of my family becomes the ruler whose name will be the same as my name and the name of his father will be the same as the name of my father. He will fill the world with justice and fairness just as it was filled with tyranny and exploitation. He will distribute things equally among the people and Allāh will also fill their hearts with content. He will rule for seven or nine years. Then after the caliphate of Mahdī, there will be a total end to goodness (and virtue).”<sup>1</sup>

Haythamī also narrated it through Abū Hurayrah (rta) in Mawārid-uz-zam‘ān (6:128 # 1876).

Suyūtī narrated it with a difference of words at another place in al-Hāwī lil-fatāwā (2:58).

People will perform the pilgrimage together.	56
Prophet ‘Īsā ibn Maryam will descend.	49, 50
That time is near when neither dinars nor	19

grain.
The Arabs will be in small number.	49
The Day of Judgement will not come until a person.	35
The Day of Judgment will not come until the earth is filled with tyranny.	20
The earth will be filled with tyranny and oppression.	22
The name of Mahdī will be Muhammad.	17
The sign of that day will be that a hand will be seen.	60
The time is near when the river Euphrates.	30
The world will not cease to exist until someone from my family.	18
There will be a caliph in my Ummah who will generously.	35, 39, 62
There will be a person from this Ummah and 'Īsā	50
There will be difference of opinion over the death of the caliph.	27
There will be Mahdī in my Ummah.	40, 41, 42, 44
There will be peace between you and Rome four times.	16
This dīn will remain dominant till the twelve caliphs	58
Three persons will wage war near your treasure.	29
Until twelve caliphs have passed on whom this Ummah will unite.	58
We, the children of 'Abd-ul-Muttalib.	15
What will be the state (of your joy) at the time when 'Īsā	46
When Islam (ie the state of the Ummah) becomes weak.	48
When Mahdī will appear.	50
When Sufyān's (army) and Mahdī's army will face each other.	60

When the announcer will announce.	55
Whoever denies (the coming of) Dajjāl, has surely committed disbelief.	52
Whoever has me as his master.	1, 7
Yes, Mahdī is the Truth.	50

The Author

DR. TAHIR-UL-QADRI is in need of no introduction to those affiliated to the many fields, which he has mastered during a small period of time. He is the founding leader of Minhaj-ul-Quran International (MQI), which is based in over 80 countries of the world. Its main aims are working for global peace and human rights, reviving Islamic values, teachings and traditions and striving for the unity of the Ummah through a social, educational and political struggle.

As Dr. Tahir-ul-Qadri is presenting the true peaceful message of Islam pure from innovations added into it and internal and external political influences, his work, message and call are accepted with open arms. The main reasons being that he has portrayed Islam as a truly moderate faith in its original form, free from any form of extremism, fanaticism and terrorism. As part of his vast struggle for equality, equity and equal human rights for all, he has written over two hundred and fifty books on all kinds of modern, religious, spiritual and secular issues in English, Urdu and Arabic.

Dr. Tahir-ul-Qadri is accepted as one of the highest authorities in the world on Islam, Islam and the West, Islam and Science and many other subjects, which is why he has delivered thousands of lectures in international conferences, universities and institutions all over the world on all types of issues. Although he is a scholar and a religious leader for whom there is no match, his educational, social and political efforts have also penetrated society. He is leading a peaceful movement in Pakistan to liberate the poor from the corrupt ruling elite, which has ruled the country over the last half century. He is leading this revolt by getting the poor and downtrodden segments of society behind him. In doing so he formed his own political party in 1989 by the name of "Pakistan Awami Tehreek" (Pakistan Popular Movement), which has been carrying out this struggle in the political and electoral arenas. Unlike any other religious or political personality, Dr. Tahir-ul-Qadri and his mission have attracted people from varying sects and religions. He and his organisation are the sole hope for inter-sect and interfaith peace, harmony and unity. His immense achievements in the field of education and welfare have been internationally recognised by the many international awards he has received.

In a growing international atmosphere of anti-Islamism, political conflicts between Western and Muslim countries and the distance between the West and Islam seeming to be increasing, Dr. Tahir-ul-Qadri is the one man who can bridge the gap between the West and Islam. Not only can he solve the problems of the Muslim world but in doing so he will also solve the problems faced by Western nations. If you wish to learn more about him and his organisation or would like to join his peaceful movement then do not hesitate to contact us on the contact details given below:
